"It is the law of American politics that no man can make himself a candidate for President, and no man can prevent himself from being a candidate for President."— From a statement made by the late James G.

Ir the President really wants to give the Pension Agency of Kentucky to a Civil War Veteran, and to one who is capable, honest and deserving, he will appoint Major A. T. Woop of Mt. Sterling.

THE New York Herald has interviewed 211 Democrats in Congress on Mr. Beyan's position in regard to the Democratic policy. Of the number 162 declared against him, 42 were noncommittal and only 7 were for him; but what does Willie care for a little thing like that? Hasn't he still got his little 16 to 1 tin rattle?

A FAIR sample of the peanut politics practiced at Frankfort is found in the fact that the House, by a solid Democratic vote, passed the Adams Bill transferring the position occupied in the County Board of Election Commissioners by the Sheriff to the Circuit Clerk in cities of the scroud class. This measure was aimed directly at Sheriff McINERNEY of Kenton county, because of his efforts to secure a fair primary last September and his long and successful fight against the Covington gang, and because be would not allow himself to become a party to a scheme to permit a lot of political bums, gangsters and cutthroats to become election officers in the last two elections, which would enable the political gang which has had ontrol of Kenton county for some time to teal the elections and thwart the will of the eople. The fact that Sheriff McINERNEY is Democrat cut no ice with the gangsters; the lovington election thieves have no more use or an honest Democrat than they have for a epublican.

BEGINNING February 1st, the Western Union will accept money for transmission by wire at reduced rates; also, fractional parts of a dollar will be transmitted. This will be good news for those who can't get rid of money fast enough-if they can't "burn it" they can telegraph it.

Ir is hoped that the protest of property owners against the re-crection or even the repairing of the burned shacks in Market street will be effective. If such attempt be made, the parties ought to be enjoined. These unsightly huts have for years been a menace to surrounding property and a disgrace to the city. Now that they are practically destroyed, they ought to be replaced by decent buildings.

"Do you know how Lieutenant-Governor J. H. Tillman secured the Jury which acquitted him of the murder of Gonzales?" asked George Walker, a traveling man for a Cincinnati house, in the lobby of the Willard last night. This was interesting, and everybody in earshot gathered closer to hear. Mr. Walker said:

"As soon as it was known in what county of South Carolina the case would be tried, men representing themselves as agents for a picture enlarging establishment made their appearance in the county. There were a dozen of them, and each man carried with him as a sample of the work done by his house an enlarged chromo of Tillman, which was so natural that no one could fail to recognize it as the Lieutenant-Governor, who was as well known by his pictures as is Governor Beckham in this state. The agent, carrying his picture of Tillman, would go to a house, ask for the head always, and with the man would begin to talk about securing a contract to enlarge a picture of any member of the family. After a few minnies conversation he would display his sample, the picture of the slayer of Gonzales. This would invariably bring the talk around to the Tillman case, and the pretended agent would draw out of the man an expression of pinion on the case. He would obtain the name of the man, and after leaving the house-always without accepting any money, but with a promise to call later for the order,-would put down in a note-book the name of the man, and whether he was for or against Tillman.

"This was done in every house in the county, Not one was missed, and at the end of the time when the trial was to begin the Attorneys for Tillman were furnished with an alphabetical list of the entire male population of the county eligible for Jury service, and opposite the name of each man was a memorandum showing how he stood on the case. When a man was called who was on the list as being opposed to Tillman and in favor of convicting him, this man would be forced to state that he had expressed an opinion in the case, and was therefore ineligible for service on the Juty. This was the way Tillman's Attorneys secured a Jury which was composed on no n who had all expressed themselves to forehand as favoring no acquired **

. THE ON PROGRAM AND SCIENTIFIC WORK. ase card that called forth the above resolution reads as follows-

Owing to the inclemency of the season the Mason County Medical Society will not hold its regular monthly session at the G. A. R. Hall this afternoon. Dr. Ellis, who is booked for an essay on Hamlet, says that he is not yet ready with his paper - that here of late he has read so many queer books, entertained so many outas opinions—had such awful dreams, that be is beginning to see ghosts, hear voices in the air and believe in the good old Presbyterian doctrine that there is a Divinity that shapes our ends rough-this cold stormy weather.

Why, gentlemen, it's dead easy to spot the author of the card; the ear-marks stand out like the flaps of an elephant.
